

CELEBRATE YOUR WEDDING AT THE NATIONAL MARITIME MUSEUM

Imagine getting married against a unique backdrop where history, character and impressive architecture meet. Make a spectacular entry by boat, take your wedding photos against the nostalgic East Indiaman Amsterdam and enjoy an intimate dinner surrounded by amazing museum pieces in one of the Heldenhoek Chambers. Or dance the night away at your superb wedding party on the Open Pleyn Courtyard, under a romantic starry sky. The National Maritime Museum creates the perfect romantic and memorable setting for your special day.

A magical and memorable day

The three beautiful, historic, high-ceilinged Chambers can be used individually or together, for the ceremony, reception, dinner and even the party. Whether you are planning an intimate gathering or a larger event, the Chambers accommodate groups ranging between 20 and 250 people. Or is a magnificent evening party under hundreds of starry lights more appealing? The Open Pleyn Courtyard, with its glass, LED-lit roof, provides a unique ambiance, in which you will feel like you have travelled to a magical, far-away spot for a single evening.

Countless romantic locations

The National Maritime Museum is a licensed wedding location and can host every aspect of your wedding day, starting with the ceremony itself and including the reception, dinner and party. Let your guests welcome you or send you on your way when you arrive or leave by boat at our very own jetty. You can also take a trip with your guests on the steamship Christiaan Brunings. You will take unique wedding photos in the many inspiring locations The National Maritime Museum offers, while you treat your guests to a visit to the museum. The historic setting on the water, conveniently located in the centre of Amsterdam, and our excellent catering will give your wedding day just that much more flair.
